Card of Thanks

THANK YOU:

A huge THANK YOU to everyone who sent cards-texts-phone calls & personal messages on my 60th birthday. Thanks to my kids, grandkids, family & friends who helped me celebrate this big birthday milestone. My apologies about the photos in the paper--those were from a time & era long ago. There was a reason they were buried deep before someone broke into my house & stole them. I thought their mother taught them it is bad to break & enter? In March, 1981, Sandi & I moved into this community as a young (somewhat wild) couple with no idea where we were headed. Responsibility is a great thing! We were a young couple with a baby on the way--bought our first house in Arthur & soon to buy my fertilizer business. Amazing what a child & a lot of debt will do to you. Then, 36 years later, you turn into an old guy! I have had a lot of great times & plenty of bad times, but I am so glad we came to this community to live & raise our family!! Thanks to everyone!

THANK YOU:

The family of Betty McIntosh would like to thank the many people who provided comfort and care to her for the past several years: Dr. Veltri, doctors, nurses & staff at Horn Memorial Hospital & Golden Horizons. We would like to thank the Christensen-Van Houten Funeral Homes & American Legion Post #61 for their well-executed arrangements. The Country Club staff, friends & family made Betty's memorial a special event.

Scott McIntosh,
